How we manage and protect your information

We keep your information safe by storing it in a secure membership database and only granting access to approved Executive members and nominated Club Officers for legitimate purposes. The club membership and administration data is made available to our website and is securely backed-up and copies stored in off site locations.

Besides our nominated Club Officers, we share this information with Bowls Canterbury in order for them to meet their requirements for affiliation with Bowls New Zealand.

Updating your personal information

Providing some information to us is optional. However, if the information is not provided then we may not be able to provide the requested information or service. If you choose not to provide contact details we'll be unable to contact you for club business. Lack of other personal information may restrict us in the scheduling of future tournaments.

You have a right to ask for a copy of any personal information we hold about you, and to ask for it to be corrected if you think it is wrong. If you'd like to ask for a copy of this information, or have it corrected, please contact us by:
